

7 DAYS SAILING ROUTE

Relax while sailing the Ionian islands

This route is perfect for friend groups or romantic getaways since every destination offers beautiful beaches and restaurants for dinner.

Your holiday starts in Corfu, the second largest Ionian island.

Day 1

- Saturday -

Corfu

The plan for the first day is to arrive on a Saturday on Corfu and get to the Marina.

Your check-in on the boat will be at 5 PM and you will spend the night there.

Corfu's nickname is the island of the Phaeacians because of the legend of Poseidon and his love for the nymph Korkyra.

Things to do:

- Explore Corfu Old Town
- Visit the Vlacherna Monastery - this monastery is on a small island, you can walk to it or take a short boat trip
- Enjoy the Pelekas Beach - a beach is a sandy beach with crystal clear water.

Food & drinks:

- Anthos Restaurant - a place with tasty and fresh seafood and some vegan options
- La Tavola Calda - cozy Italian restaurant
- The Tandoori Bites - a place with Asian specialties

Day 2

- Sunday -

Corfu - Lefkimmi

Lefkimmi is one of the biggest villages on Corfu that cherishes greek tradition.

Things to do:

- Enjoy Katoulla Beach

Food & drinks:

- Savvas Taverna - Mediterranean cuisine with great gluten-free options
- Likourgos Taverna - a great greek place for big groups
- Mikro Nisi Beach Venue - fresh greek cuisine that also offers vegan options

Day 3

- Monday -

Lefkimmi - Paxos Island

The west coast of Paxos is dominated by steep white, chalky cliffs that are greatly eroded at sea level, and harbor many 'blue caves'.

Much of the landscape is covered in olive groves.

Things to do:

- Visit the Statue of Georgios Anemogiannis
- Erimitis Bay Beach - a beautiful beach with clear sea
- Vrika Beach - a breathtaking sandy beach that could easily be mistaken for the Caribbean

Food & drinks:

- Capriccio - a small cafe overlooking the bay where you can enjoy some pancakes
- La Vista - this restaurant serves Mediterranean and Greek cuisine
- Genesis Restaurant - a great place to try lamb kleftiko

Day 4

- Tuesday -

Paxos Island - Parga

The city of Parga is situated between the mountainous coastal region of Preveza and Igoumenitsa.

Things to do in Parga:

- Venetian Castle of Parga - the castle offers great views of the Ionian Sea and Parga
- Panagia Chapel - the chapel lies on an island across from Parga where you can swim to
- Ali Pasha Castle - offers a beautiful view of the bay, there is also a restaurant

Food & drinks:

- Delizie - great food and ambiance
- Achilleas Bakery - a place where you can try spanakopita
- The Olive Tree Restaurant - a place that offers a great wine bar

Day 5

- Wednesday -

Parga - Syvota

Syvota is a well-developed resort with numerous pristine beaches with clear waters located on several islets immediately offshore.

Things to do in Syvota:

- Bella Vraka Beach - a great beach for water sports
- Mega Ammos Beach
Pisina Beach

Food & drinks:

- Ionian Fish Restaurant - a great place to try specialties with octopus
- The Blue Coast - try different cuisine

Day 6

- Thursday -

Sagiada is the most western point of Greece's mainland.

Things to do in Sagiada:

- Old Sagiada - old town with old houses and streets
- Keramidi beach: a small, serene beach with white shingles and lovely light blue water
- Strovili: a quiet place in a small gulf with deep blue waters, white pebbles and sand

Food & drinks:

- Panorama - a restaurant in the port that offers greek cuisine
- Alekos - fresh food and a fast service
- Remezzo Pizza Cafe

Day 7

- Friday -

Back to Corfu

For your last day, you will return to Corfu.

The old part of Corfu offers many hidden places for you to explore. Little taverns and cafes where you can try fresh greek cuisine.

After that, you can enjoy your last evening and check out on Saturday morning at 9 am.
