DUBROVNIK

Day 1

Exploring Dubrovnik

The plan for the first day is to arrive on a Saturday in Dubrovnik and get to the Marina. Your check in on the boat will be at 5 PM and you will spend the night there. Dubrovnik is Croatia's best known destination, frequently visited by many celebrities.

Where to eat:

- Zuzori - a fusion that excites your tastebuds
- Restaurant Dubrovnik - live music and fresh seafood
- Tavulin Wine & Art Bar - wine, cheese, prosciutto while you enjoy the shade
- Oyster & Sushi Bar Bota - great place to try fresh fish in the center of the city

You can also use this time to take a:

- Game of Thrones guided tour
- Diocletian Palace walking tour
- highlights of Split by Rickshaw tour

MLJET

Day 2

Mljet island - beaches of Saplnara

Explore the untouched beaches of Saplnara and find your own little slice of heaven here.

Gastro suggestions:

- Stermasi - with a romantic view and tasty seafood
- Beach Bar Hippokamos - you can't go wrong with some cocktails
- Restaurant Maestral Okuklje - family restaurant with great food choices

What to do:

- go hiking to the Odysseus Cave

KORČULA

Day 3

Island of Korčula

Sail to Korčula, an island that celebrates Half New Year with an open-air carnival where locals and tourists take part in the masked parade before dancing, eating and drinking the night away.

Gastro suggestions:

- Lešić Dimitri Palace - dine under the trees on the seafront promenade
- Konoba Mate - must visit for great homemade pasta with fresh seafood
- Cukarin - traditional sweets bakery

What to do:

- Marco Polo house and a walking tour of the old town
- sword dances, Moreska and the rest
- visit to the winemakers

LASTOVO

Day 4

Lastovo island - Zaklopatica bay

Lastovo is a genuine heaven for lovers of nature, sailing and good food and wine. Due to its 50 years of military isolation, the island is one of the last untouched areas of Mediterranean.

Gastro suggestions:

- Konoba Triton - fresh food and great views on the Adriatic
- Konoba Augusta Insula - for a fantastic atmosphere and fresh sea products

What to do:

- the island has marked hiking and cycling trails
- walking tour to old city of Lastovo with chimney sightseeing
- hiking to Hum, the highest point of the island

MLJET

Day 5

Mljet island - National Park

Mljet is voted to be "the most seductive island in the Adriatic" by Lonely Planet. It is covered by a dense Mediterranean forest and criss-crossed with a maze of paths that are ideal for tranquil walking.

Gastro suggestions:

- Konoba Ogigija - fresh selection of food for everybody's taste
- Mali Raj - great place by the lake

What to do:

- rent a scooter or bike and visit the St Mary's Island & the Internal Lakes of Mljet National Park
- visit Big and Small Lake

ŠIPANI

Day 6

Šipani island

Šipani is the largest island of the Elaphite archipelago (in Greek meaning the Deer Islands) with quiet bays, beaches, green cypress groves, summer residences of the noblemen and common citizens spread all over the grove-covered hills.

Gastro suggestions:

- Konoba kod Marka - small place overlooking the bay with great food
- Tri sestre - cozy atmosphere and fresh food
- Stara mlinica - enjoy the sunsets with great food selection

Other than dining you can:

- St Peter's Church, dating back to the 11th century check out the fragrant olive groves, as well as seeing fresh figs, almonds, citrus
- fruits and vegetables being grown
- explore the ancient Roman ruins in Šipanska Luka

DUBROVNIK

Day 7

Back to Dubrovnik

The last day we will make a stop at the Šunji beach on our way to Dubrovnik. Šunji is the most famous sandy beach in the Dubrovnik region. After that you can enjoy your last evening in Dubrovnik and check out on Saturday morning at 9 am.
