

GÖCEK SAILING ROUTE

7 days of turkish coast

This is a 7 day (Saturday - Saturday) sailing trip starting from Göcek with breathtaking views of the sun and the sea, and with countless possibilities for snorkeling and swimming and a special turkish delight - mud baths.

Please note that all restaurants and activities listed are only suggestions, and are not included in the price. The trip can be changed according to your wishes, meaning stops can be added or removed.

GÖCEK

Day 1

Göcek - the city of marinas

The plan for the first day is to arrive on a saturday in Göcek and get to the Marina. Your check in on the boat will be at 5 PM and you will spend the night there.

Moor at the jetty, swim at the nearby beach, explore Merdivenli Cove and Seagull Bay and then head to the hills to see ancient ruins.

Things to do:

- explore the forested national park
- trace its underwater past and see the Kalimce ruins

Food and drinks:

- Lotis Kitchen - Seafood, Italian, Mediterranean, European, Turkish cuisine
- Daidala Restaurant - Seafood, Mediterranean, European cuisine
- West Cafe & Bistro - for brunch or late night dining

EKINCİK

Day 2

Ekincik - the best place for mud baths

Ekincik is between Marmaris and Dalyan. With a local motorboat you can ride up the Dalyan River to the UNESCO ancient city of Kaunos, where you'll see six tombs of the kings cut into the sheer rock face.

What to do:

- visit the nearby mud baths with their mystical healing powers

Gastro suggestions:

- Likya Restaurant - Turkish, Seafood, Mediterranean cuisine
- My Marina Yacht Club - Seafood, European, Turkish, Mediterranean cuisine

GEMILER

Day 3

Gemiler or St Nicholas Island

You can enjoy impressive views at the top of the island, but prepare your walking shoes, sunscreen and water for that.

What to do:

- visit the tomb of St Nicholas, where Father Christmas, has been originally been located
- climbing a very steep hill you can see the ruins of five churches built between the 4th and 6th centuries, one of which is cut into the rock

Gastro suggestions:

- a small makeshift restaurant stands in the bay for the summer sailors (its owners do not live on the island)

KIZILKUYRUK KOYU

Day 4

Kızılkuyruk Koyu bay - peace time

This is a small bay area on your way to Fethiye, before sailing in that direction, pack food and drinks for two days.

What to do:

- snorkeling in a deep anchorage and beautiful cove with clear water
- enjoy your time away from the crowds

Gastro suggestions:

- there are no restaurants or grocery stores
- time for on board cooking!

FETHIYE

Day 5

Fethiye - explore archaeological treasures

Visit the amazing, well-preserved settlement of Pinara. It sits in the mountains with tombs cut into high rocks, many with columns and motifs.

What to do:

- explore the Tlos ruins with its amphitheater or the ruins at Xanthos and Kalkan
- find out about the Antalya ruins with rock tombs that formed part of Lycia's ancient settlements

Gastro suggestions:

- Ailem Cafe Restaurant - cheap and delicious Mediterranean, Seafood, Turkish cuisine
- Carnival Restaurant - place with great food and views of the sunrises and sunsets
- Mozaik Bahce - Turkish, Middle Eastern cuisine

WALL BAY

Day 6

Wall Bay - time for snorkeling

Sail to Wall Bay. Swim or kayak on the nearby Cleopatra's Bay and explore ancient ruins.

Other than dining you can:

- it offers the best snorkeling conditions in this part of Turkey

Gastro suggestions:

- Adaia - family-run restaurant, only accessible by boat
- Wall Bay Restaurant - fresh fish and seafood

GÖCEK

Day 7

Back to Göcek

You will spend your last evening in Göcek and check out on Saturday morning at 9 am.

Use this time for a last day at the beach or exploring things you didn't have time for on the first day.

BOOK YOUR TRIP