

PULA SAILING ROUTE

7 days of playful kid friendly route

Take your kids on a sailing experience of their life. Together you can take this amazing journey, explore places and come closer as a family. You will work as a team and your kids can learn valuable life lessons.

This route is made for sailing with children. Islands are perfect places to visit - there are less cars, the nature is wild and a great place to explore and learn, you can even meet some animals you don't see on mainland.

The suggested bays have beaches that are easy to enter, but just in case, bring some jelly sandals - they are back in fashion.

PULA

Day 1

Pula - the city of ancient Roman buildings

Check in at 5 PM at ACI marina Pula. You can access it by plane (Pula airport or Rijeka airport), by ferry, by train and by car (you can park at the marina).

Pula is the largest city in Istria. It is known for its multitude of ancient Roman buildings. The most famous is the Pula Arena, one of the best preserved Roman amphitheatres in Europe. Pula lies on and beneath seven hills on the inner part of a wide gulf and a naturally well-protected port.

Where to eat:

- TiVoli - a place that offers mediterranean and croatian cuisine but also pizza
- Fortuna - great place in the center where you can enjoy ice cream
- Konoba Boccaporta - healthy and fresh food

Things to do:

- Pula Arena - visit the Arena with its marvelous walls, maybe you'll be lucky - during summer there are a lot of concerts in the Arena
- Aquarium Pula - you can find a lot of sea creatures and learn about them
- Beach Valovine - easy to enter with trees when you want to escape the sun
